Diocese of Sacramento
2110 Broadway
Sacramento, CA 95818

Dear Bishop Soto,

The attached pages include a list of comments and nearly a thousand signers of a petition and letter posted online at: <https://www.ipetitions.com/petition/return-father-leatherby-to-active-ministry>.

The comment from Ryan George Seeley also expresses the desire of the faithful. It reads:

As a father of five, I expect my children to generally trust my judgment on family matters without question. Similarly, I'd expect roughly the same from Church faithful regarding episcopal authority over Clerics. But there are exceptions to both, which is why I sign this petition.

If I were to punish one of my children without adequate explanation, or under false pretenses – I would hope that their siblings would petition me until I changed my mind. If my actions, purportedly in defense of my family, were disproportionate from what they expected, and in fact caused more damage and scandal than good, I hope my children would have the courage to persist and I, the wisdom to listen.

Thus, respectfully, we petition you Bishop Soto to return Father Leatherby to active ministry, because:

- 1. Our pastor has been indefinitely removed from us, without adequate explanation. And although a "credible allegation" may justify a short-term suspension pending an investigation, it is incredible to suggest that a mere allegation, no matter how credible, can justify an over two-and-a-half-year suspension. Continued reliance on this one "credible allegation" as the basis for a multi-year suspension, does itself impair your respective credibility with the lay faithful.*

- 2. The initial misrepresentation, in writing, made on behalf of the diocese, that Father was absent due to illness, continues to cause the faithful to question diocesan credibility in this matter. As a father, the proper thing to do now (as I do when I make similar mistakes of haste with my children) is to own up to the false statement, and ask for forgiveness.*

Our Voice in the Diocese Sacramento

OurVoiceintheDiocese.com

3. The diocesan response has been disproportionate, even assuming the allegation is later shown to be true. No criminal or civil proceedings were instituted or referred to civil authorities. This is hopeful, because if matter were criminal-but had not yet been referred to the authorities, then it would mean that the diocese would be derelict in its duties to protect the innocent, as well as a victim. This leaves the conclusion that the diocese has suspended for over two years, a priest who has been “credibly alleged” to have engaged in a consensual but non-licit relationship/encounter with another consenting adult. Are we really meant to believe that this de-facto multi-year sentence is a just and proportional response where there is no alleged uncivil or criminal behavior?

4. Father’s unexplained suspension is not helping your lay faithful or clerics. It is causing unnecessary scandal and causing many long-time faithful to harden their hearts to your episcopate- though thankfully not to the Church as a whole. As a father myself, I have a right and duty to mete out correction and protect my family as I see best. When I do so capriciously, without explanation, I hurt my children more than helping them. That is what you are doing to us your flock.

In closing and in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, I pray that you Bishop Soto will either substantiate your decision to your flock immediately with credible evidence, not mere credible allegations, or immediately return Father Leatherby to active ministry.

Bishop Soto, on behalf of Ryan, his fellow parishioners at Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the rest of the signers of this letter and petition, I request that you either release any evidence against Father Jeremy Leatherby or return him to active ministry.

Sincerely in Christ,

Gerald J. Klaas

Petition Return Father Leatherby to active ministry

Bishop Soto, Diocese of Sacramento, we add our signatures to the attached letter from Sally Leatherby requesting that you return Father Jeremy Leatherby to active ministry.

---- begin ---

To: Rev. Mark Richards, Vicar General

From: Sally Leatherby, Fr. Jeremy's Grandmother

Subject: Response to your letter dated August 31, 2018

I don't have much knowledge on the details of what has occurred in Fr. Jeremy's case, but I do have many concerns about the information in your letter that raises more questions than answers.

QUESTIONS:

1. Two and one half years for a hearing? (Missed family weddings, baptisms, first communions, confirmations)
2. "Formal canonical process"? Have other allegations been processed this way?
3. Who selects this "panel of canonical experts"? My trust is very low at this time!!
4. "Privacy", "presumed innocence", "integrity"? Priests and employees of the Sacramento Diocese told numerous priests and laity that Fr. Jeremy is guilty and they have seen evidence? Slanderous?

5. Why this letter now? Is this in response to people's frustration and anger?

6. Diocesan letters to the public indicated that Fr. Jeremy was sick and taking a leave of absence? And that he resigned voluntarily?

Fr. Jeremy has remained faithful to his vows of obedience to his bishop and has asked repeatedly for everyone else to remain silent. I find it hard to see and hear this spin and not to respond.

Fr. Jeremy wants nothing more than to be a priest.

Date: 31 August 2018

To: All Priests

From: Re.:Mark R. Richards, Vicar General, Subject: Rev. Jeremy P. Leatherby

Over the past several weeks, a number of you have expressed concern and interest in the case of Fr. Jeremy Leatherby. Given the speculation which has been put forth in recent weeks and the length of time it has taken to resolve this case, we have opted to make the following statement to those who inquire. We wanted you to have the same information.

"Fr. Leatherby was placed on leave in March 2016 due to a credible allegation of ministerial boundary violations with an adult woman. A subsequent preliminary investigation determined that a formal canonical process would be needed to investigate the circumstances around this allegation.

Fr. Leatherby has been represented by canonical counsel (a canon lawyer) of his own choosing from the beginning of this process. In compliance with diocesan policy, the diocese is paying for that counsel. The diocese has been in regular communication with his counsel. Neither the bishop nor his staff has ever refused to communicate with Fr. Leatherby or his counsel.

To the frustration of us all, it took longer than we would have liked to assemble a panel of canonical experts independent of the diocese to address this case. But that independent panel has been in place since January and the process is proceeding. In the interest of protecting the privacy of accusers, the presumed innocence of those accused, and the integrity of the process, we do not comment on the specifics of a particular case while the process is on-going. In all such cases, both the alleged victims and those accused are given the opportunity to be heard and to respond. As with all those who are accused, Fr. Leatherby's right of defense is being protected.

We ask that members of the faithful keep all those involved in prayer, imploring the Holy Spirit to guide those responsible to finding the truth."

| 1 | Gerald Klaas | Bishop Soto, it has been almost 3 years since you removed Fr. Leatherby from ministry without adequate explanation to the faithful of Presentation Parish. It is time to either release the evidence against him or return him to ministry. God is giving you an opportunity to do what is right, I pray that you do so. |

| 9 | Laura smith | He is the best priest and friend we have ever had as a family. He has converted so many people. He was unjustly removed from helping so many people get to heaven! Bring him back! We absolutely love him and all he has done for others. |
| 10 | Paul Willover | Remember, O Most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful, O Mother of the World Incarnate, despite not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen |
| 11 | Stephen Smith | It is not right nor fair what has transpired with Fr Jeremy Leatherby. Do the right thing and return him to be an active priest! |
| 12 | Beth Tatge | Bishop Soto, this fight you have with the wonderful Leatherby Family in response to a report of active gay priests in your Diocese is beyond ridiculous & evil. One day when Father Leatherby is canonized Saint Jeremy, your name will be in his book as a hindrance to this Holy Priest of God. Bring Father Leatherby back & clean up this Diocese of the active cover up of active gay priests! |

| 26 | Susan Money | It is time to resolve this matter. A very faithful and holy priest is being kept from ministry while rumors abound about priests committing adulterous acts and a blind eye is turned...perhaps the Papal Nuncio needs to be contacted to uncover the truth and spare so many good people from sins of gossip and speculation ... |
| 27 | Karen Salstrom | Holy priests should not be treated this way. |
| 28 | V. B. Anonymous | Justice delayed, justice denied. The Sacramento Diocese should proceed to the formal process if the Bishop thinks he committed acts against Canon Law and Diocesan policies. Those who committed sexual abuse among the clergy should not be covered up by the bishop. Silence no more! |

Do not leave him to twist in the wind, hoping that he'll leave the priesthood! He's a holy, godly man and priest. Return him to active duty and restore all his priestly faculties immediately, please. We the laymen of the Church have a right to ask this of you, seeing the abuses of due process Father Leatherby has been subject to! Sincerely, Helen Spalding |
| 100 | Viviane Maxwell | Please return Father Leatherby to Presentation Parish. The Parish has not been the same since he was replaced. I made the decision to join Presentation Parish in 2013 because Jeremy and his family supported Prop 8 despite the scrutiny they suffered at their family business. Father Leatherby was a true blessing to all of us and I continue to pray he will return and bring joy back to Presentation Parish. Lord hear our prayers! |

| 113 | BEATRIZ I CONCEPCION | It is time that Father Leatherby's case be made a priority for the sake of the integrity of the Church and the children/families he lead at PBVM. The Church needs great priest who are not afraid to teach the correct doctrine and traditions that Jesus came to establish. It's time to clean "house" of the pro-gay and luke warm priests/parishioners. Even if that means we (Catholic church) dwindle in size, Jesus started with only 12! Let's set the world ablaze with the correct teachings and doctrine of the Catholic church! |
| 114 | Leigh Burnham | |
| 115 | V. S. Anonymous | Father Jeremy is truly a blessing and Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary parish experienced a positive revival once he became pastor at Presentation. He needs to be reinstated ASAP. |

| 210 | Frank Ferdinand (N.B. Fake FB profile related to twitter handle @GraciellaRamos) | Iâ€™m signing BUT the vicious attacks on the woman filing the complaint have to stop!! They are only an invitation to the evil one to corrupt the process. Also is also all over the internet that she withdrew the claim. False. And that her claim is illegitimate and the suspension was solely a reatiation for Deacon Leatherby reporting a gay priest. If itâ€™s true -and no actual evidence is cited no one least if all his dad should or family is going Fr Leatherby or the future souls he will impact any favors by engaging in gossip. One can protest the actions of a Bishop without taking it to such an extreme. If he is reinstated, even if the Bishop is a sinner, Fr Leatherby has to forgive him and love him like a father and obey him when he is reinstated. Then we will have a good priest and a forgiven Bishop with the potential to convert the world with the power of their witness and the power of their sacramental work. None of the articles in Church Militant or Katy Grimesâ€™ unhinged rantings or the radio interview are helping Fr. Leatherby. Itâ€™s a heavy cross, maybe the heaviest, but attacking the woman and the Bishop does ZERO to help. |

Please, we humbly implore you, restore God's faithful servant, Father Jeremy! We will continue to pray and to weep until our merciful Father comes to our aid and brings him back to us. | 299 | Cristina Acosta | Father Leatherbyâ€™s humility, patience and obedience during the period of time since his removal from active ministry has been inspiring and a beautiful example of what holiness looks like. The delay in his case appears to be without good cause. Moreover, while Father has been unable to defend himself, Diocesan staff have slandered him and shared confidential details (gossip, not facts) about his situation. I have directly experienced this and it is truly unfortunate. Please act immediately to resolve this case and help repair our trust in the Diocese. Three years is an unreasonable amount of time to take action in this matter. |

| 308 | Jaclene Roderick | What brought me to Presentation Parish is Fr. Jeremy Leatherby's desire to bring everyone he could to a deep and meaningful relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ. I appreciate how he takes very seriously his role as our shepherd. He understands the gravity of his responsibility to his flock. I felt cared for and was challenged to be nothing less than a saint under his fatherly care. His leadership brought miraculous healing to my family and continues to bless our family through what he taught us and the GREAT GIFT of Presentation School and the Dominican Sisters of Mary Mother of the Eucharist. I am eternally grateful to Fr. Jeremy Leatherby and look forward to seeing him reinstated as soon as possible. I genuinely hope our Bishop is being genuine in his actions because we will all be called to account for what we have done and what we have failed to do. That being said, it's never too late to say I'm sorry (but the sooner, the better). |
| 309 | Bridget | Praying for you Fr. Jeremy Leatherby |
| 310 | Lucille C Hadden | Evil can no longer hide. As a shepherd, please protect the innocent children and adults in your care. Rid your diocese of the wolves and return Fr. Leatherby to honor and right standing. Please, cause no more harm to whistle-blowers who have no recourse but to report to you what they have observed. |
| 311 | Allison DePaoli | There is no holier priest! The way Fr. Leatherby has handled this unjust persecution is of no surprise to me. He is suffering just as Christ did. Reinstiate Fr. Leatherby NOW!!! |
| 312 | Sarah Sorenson | |
| 313 | Katie Prust | |
| 314 | Marla Kanelos | |
| 315 | Soraya Pierman | Fr Leatherby is an amazing and holy priest. The diocese is losing out by having him out of ministry. |
| 316 | Dominic Cooke | I have known Fr. Leatherby since I was a child. He has always been a man of integrity and unwavering faith. Re-instate Fr. Leatherby so that he can continue to inspire through his service. |
| 317 | Windy Hageman | |
| 318 | Michele Milota | |
| 319 | Suzanne Doud | |
| 320 | Katherine Baxter | |
| 321 | George Hagel | This man is one of the only things helping me to stay Catholic, the Church needs him |
| 322 | Nicolai Bajanov | Please focus on punishing priests who are actual threats to the safety of their sheep, not this innocent man. |
| 323 | Liz Andersen | |
| 324 | Lynne Cimorelli | |
| 325 | Alison Leahy | |
| 326 | Elizabeth Sutton | He is a holy man with a great desire to lead many souls to Christ. Be a part of the solution in these troubled times of the Catholic church, have some humility and do the right thing (something many Bishops have had difficulty with). I pray the laity of the Sacramento diocese keeps up the prayers and the pressure. |
| 327 | Susan Kaufer | It is my understanding that Fr. Leatherby's accuser has rescinded her allegations. That should be sufficient grounds to dismiss this ridiculous case against him. |
| 328 | Charmaine Cooper | Enough silence. |

| 334 | Marie Leatherby | It is time this gifted and amazing priest be reinstated. His loss has been heartbreaking for so many. He brought so many souls to the Lord and deepened their faith. Mine included. We will never know how many have been lost over these past 2.5 years since his removal. Anyone who truly knows him knows these accusations and allegations could not be true. I pray this council seeks the truth and justice be restored. In Jesus name. |
| 335 | Gina A Pecher | |
| 336 | Jerry Krebs | |
| 337 | Marie Shiya | Outrageous. |
| 338 | Arielle | This is ridiculous that I even have to sign this- this shouldn't be happening! |
| 339 | John Abdo | |
| 340 | Chris Bailey | We want truth with justice and mercy. It has been too long for the body of Christ to wait for answers and decisions for a priest, Fr. Jeremy, who deserves more compassion and justice on his behalf and ours. |
| 341 | Clare Dick | |
| 342 | Sarah Holowecky | Please reinstate Fr. Leatherby. |
| 343 | Kimberly Murin | |
| 344 | Catherine Hendon | |
| 345 | anthony indrieri | The man is the real deal. Dont stand behind a bishop that you know isn't right. "The truth is incontrovertible, malice may attack it, ignorance may deride it, but in the end, there it is". Do the right thing! |
| 346 | Scott Geiger | |
| 347 | Francis Ruiz | Unfair and wrong |
| 348 | Polly Cooper | |
| 349 | Tom Herring | Removing a priest for 2.5+ years of "investigating" a single allegation is, on the face of it, a grave injustice. |
| 350 | D. Q. Anonymous | This is a despicable outrage and absolute injustice. Fr. Jeremy is an excellent priest, the very best I've seen or known in all my years and travels around the world. No one deserves this injustice and outright negligence in resolving an issue such as this. Stop promoting bad actors while covering up scandal all while persecuting the many very good priests. There must be a level of trust and it works both ways with clergy and laity. I sincerely hope and pray that Fr. Leatherby be reinstated immediately. |
| 351 | Janine Murphy | It is ridiculous that Jeremy Leatherby is being treated this way. And by his own Church. Christ would not want the people to be unheard. We are asking for loving action. Please move on this! |
| 352 | Susie O'Brien | |

| | | |
|-----|----------------------|---|
| 353 | John Atilano | Bishop Soto, I am a perisioner at St. Melâ€™s church but I have heard nothing but fine things about Father Leatherby. I believe he should be reinstated now. Our Church is under attack not only from the outside but also the inside by Bishops who do not have the guts to stand up and protect the priest who need protecting and instead feel compelled to protect priest who should be prosecuted and removed from the Church (pedifile and homosexual). |

| 357 | Margaret Rita Reilly | Fr. Leatherby was my pastor at Presentation Parish. The Parish grew and thrived largely in part to his servant leadership. He is a faithful and loyal shepherd. I went on pilgrimage with a large group including him to Europe. His behavior and reverence were observed by all. |
| 358 | Susan Didriksen | |
| 359 | Andrew Bencken | |
| 360 | Molly Johnson | |
| 361 | Melinda Anderson | I have always been so impressed with the enthusiasm of Father Leatherby. His pure joy for his work in serving God is so evident and inspiring. ... It was undoubtedly the best Catholic experience I've ever had and I was so glad to be a part of this parish. I miss his friendly manner, his smile, his love for his work. Outside of Dave, this parish is lacking. |

| 371 | Mary O'Keefe | We are being deprived of a wonderful holy man. He is what a spiritual leader should be. I a thankful that he showed up in my life and brought me back as an active member of the Church. I pray he returns to continue his ministry> |
| 372 | Amy Shorrock | On behalf of my self, my mother in law Deni Polstra and All Shorrock Family Members We Stand by Father Leatherby and want to see him active. He was a huge part of our family during the time Deni Polstra was sick. Heâ€™s Amazing. |
| 373 | David Mark | Bishop Soto, it is time to finish your phony "investigation" and reinstate this holy priest. For you to have left this man twisting in the wind for over 2 1/2 years is shameful. Not even Robert Mueller's investigation into President Trump's alleged collusion has been going on that long. And sending Fr. Leatherby across the country for six months, allegedly for psychological evaluation, was heartless. Your prior history of lying to the congregation regarding the reason for his departure has destroyed any credibility you and the Diocesan staff have in the eyes of the congregation. Bishop Soto, it is time for you and the Holy Father both to end the stonewalling. |

|-----|---------------------|--|
| 374 | Joseph Van Zant | Itâ€™s been more than two years no with no substantiated charges being brought against Fr. Leatherby. To continue to deny him his ability to do his Priestly duties, constitutes a feeling of being â€œGuilty without a trial. Please, allow Fr. Leatherby to return to at least saying Masses as he has requested. Thank You, |

| 389 | Tina Cota | He brought me back to the faith. It would do harm to Catholic diocese to lose him. He is needed in full or partial capacity. In my opinion, he was very trusting of everyone. |
| 390 | Julie Leininger | This a shameful thing for the Catholic Church! |
| 391 | Sean Leininger | So sad that the bishop hasnâ€™t addressed this with honor! |

|-----|---------------------|--|
| 408 | John Maher | One of the biggest travesty of our diocese. We insist that this young priest be restored and granted all of his priestly faculties, duties and responsibilities. Three years and nothing. Your bulletin insert apology letter and posting of a snitch hotline phone number for the laity to report priestly sexual abuse is beyond hypocritical, especially when active sodomite priests where reported to the Vicar by Deacon Leatherby at St. Philomena's Church. The priests were not punished but the whistleblower was and his son, Father Leatherby was removed from his assignment under trumped up fake allegations because of his holy work seen by you Bishop as a threat to your liberal agenda within our diocese. The sign on your door might as well say, "Conservative traditional priests need not apply." By the way, there is a movement to call upon the laity to hold back any and all monetary donations to you Bishop Soto and the diocese and money be diverted to other needs.... Sacramento Life Center for one. Faithful..... cut off the money supply and see how soon the bishop comes clean. Yes, this will effect many hard working well intended diocesesn employees, but then perhaps they too will come forward and expose this man. Please forward this petition to any and all. If you are sitting on the fence Re this issue wake up and get involved or wait another three or five years while the corrupt Vatican might decide to hear this case which the bishop sent to Rome, right after he washed his hands. |
| 409 | Douglas Miller | Leave good priests alone! |
| 410 | Jan England | I know Fr. Leatherby to be an upstanding priest who reached out with compassion and charity to help many people. I do not believe that any priest could offer the reverent Masses he offered in a state of mortal sin which he is being accused of. I pray God's holy will may be done in this and in all things. |
| 411 | Kimberly | |
| 412 | Allison Morisey | Fr. leatherby is an inspiration to the youth and one of the most reverent priests I've ever known. |

| 419 | Jamie Shaye Mark | |
| 420 | Patrick Downs | There will be justice whether here or judgement day! Fr. Leatherby is a good man and has done nothing but been obedient and respectful. |
| 421 | Rachell MacCarthy | |
| 422 | Eduardo Villalobos | |
| 423 | Laura Dayton | His reinstatement is long overdue. The people of the diocese are asking for timely justice and an end to this abuse of power. |
| 424 | Heidi Waters | Praying for all holy priests, especially Fr. Leatherby. May their example inspire many to lead good and holy lives. |
| 425 | Regina Furlow | |
| 426 | Fr Richard Perozich | Please resolve this situation for father Jeremy and get him back in ministry today |

| 427 | Theresa Shafer | Incredible family that this has gone on way too long! |
| 428 | Mackenzly jaques | |
| 429 | Marilyn Elder | |
| 430 | Mary Murphy-Waldorf | Please discipline the priests caught in homosexual activities and other unchaste behavior and reinstate the good priests. When someone steps forward with information whether lay or priest about very serious allegations of behavior, that person should not be reprimanded unless it is found untrue. |
| 431 | Jean Mark | God knows the truth. In the meantime, let's heed the words of Our Blessed Mother and pray for all involved in this tragic event that has devastated so many--even well beyond our own parish community. Message, 25. August 2018 "Dear children! This is a time of grace. Little children, pray more, speak less and permit God to lead you on the way of conversion. I am with you and love you with my motherly love. Thank you for having responded to my call." |
| 432 | Liv Loera | He was the first priest I had ever met who treated the Mass with such reverence that I could tell that he truly believed what he said he believed. Mass wasn't something to just get through to fulfill the weekly obligation, but he truly celebrated Mass. |
| 433 | Maureen Hammock | |
| 434 | Mick Hammock | |
| 435 | Steven Peceli | I hope justice served to this bishop from the church and civil authorities if necessary. There has been no justice where Fr. Jeremy Learherby has been concerned - the evidence speaks for that. |
| 436 | Natalie LaHood | |
| 437 | Angela | |
| 438 | Stacey | Please bring Father Jeremy back to our parish. In the name of the Father, the son and the Holy Spirit. Amen! |
| 439 | Ana Bautista | Please return Father Leatherby to his priestly duties. It has been long enough and he has waited patiently for this issue to be resolved. We were lied to by the Diocese so it is difficult to believe that anything is being done for Father to return to his vocation. Justice for Father Leatherby. |
| 440 | Chris anderson | What a loss to presentation this has been. Please bring back Father Jeremy Leatherby. It's been too long since he was wrongfully taken away from the parish It is also ludicrous that we were lied to when told he resigned due to medical issues. I will not donate any more to this parish until Father Jeremy is rightfully returned to his place in the Presentation Parish. My trust in this parish is deminishing... |
| 441 | Christine | It was hard dealing with the scandal at the high level of our faith but it is even harder to see this in our parish. The unjust, the lies. I too will no longer donate to this church....i will save my offerings until the day Father Jeremy returns, then I will donate. Pic up your cross and join me.. not to be rude or disrespectful but Soto has got to go... |
| 442 | linda austin | Bishop Soto, I know Fr Leatherby and by all standards I feel that he has been unjustly accused by a very unstable person. Sincerely in Christ, Linda Austin, OCDS |

| | | |
|-----|-------------------|--|
| 443 | Joanne Goralka | It is unbelievable to me that it is now 2 1/2 years later and Fr. Leatherby has not been cleared of these unjust allegations and returned to his active priesthood. I have no doubts that the suffering Fr. Leatherby is unjustly suffering is going to prepare home for Sainthood. He is a Holy Priest! Please do the right thing and restore him to his Holy Priesthood. In my conversation with the vicar of the priests (Fr. Blaise Berg) shortly after Fr. Leatherby was removed from Presentation Parish, after a daily mass at the Cathedral, I asked about Fr. Leatherby and what I could do to help his case. I was told that I didn't know him and that he was leading a double life! This is absolute nonsense and so unjust! I was so concerned that Fr. Leatherby was getting railroaded, I summarized my conversation in an email. The very priest in charge of the priests was throwing Fr. Leatherby under the bus. This has got to stop. Holy priests are getting persecuted from the inside! |
| 444 | Frances Gentry | Father Leatherby was one of the reasons I came back to the Catholic Church |
| 445 | Christine Brown | We're all praying for you to do the right thing. Don't you hear God whispering in your ear , Do the right thing for my beloved son Jeremy. |
| 446 | Julie Handy | |
| 447 | Denise M OConnors | Real transparency, now! |
| 448 | Kevin kramer | |
| 449 | Beth Watley | Now is the time to do the right thing and being Fr Leatherby back! |
| 450 | Amy Glaser | |
| 451 | Jenna Mark | Fr. Jeremy has ignited a passion for the faith in so many. He wants nothing more than to be a priest and deserves a fair hearing. Bishop Soto, it is your obligation to give him one. This is the type of injustice that is discouraging so many away from our holy church. |
| 452 | Steven Brown | Re-instate Father Leatherby! |
| 453 | Mary Driscoll | Return faithful Fr. Jeremy Leatherby, Holy Mary's son and priest, to his duties. Suck it up and apologize publically. More than ever we need our faithful priests, including our extraordinary ones, like Fr. Jeremy Leatherby. Many faithful priests in our 2000+ history have suffered unjust ecclesiastical imprisonment like Fr. Jeremy Leatherby. St. Padre Pio & St John of the Cross, to name only two. Please BP Soto. Stop persecuting your faithful sons and stop covering up for your unfaithful sons. Our faithful priests cannot speak up as you well know. Both Confessional Seal and obedience prevent them, But many of the faithful laity do not know of these impediments. We will forgive you and so will God Almighty for your sins and mistakes. Remember, P. Francis had 6+ months warning, personally, before the POTUS Executive Order of December 21, 2017. Please, clean up our Diocese, before the feds with RICO indictments, and/or CA AG - Grand Juries do it for you. I have 2 dead cousins, Michael H and Joseph H dead. Buried in the ground as a result of sodomite predators, complicit Bishops and Archbishops and Cardinals and our 'holy?' Father. Hasn't your flock been thru enough? We don't want settlements. We want our Church back. Jesus of Mercy, I trust in You. |
| 454 | Erin turner | I support the faithful and the obedient. I'm today's church this is what is deserved by all! |

| 456 | Paul and Carole Hinkle | We have known Fr. Jeremy Leatherby for a number of years. When we were on a pilgrimage to the Vatican and Rome in 2005, headed by Fr. Vincent Juan, JCL, Jeremy Leatherby was studying in Rome and met us at the Vatican and gave us a marvelous tour. We were on a pilgrimage with Fr. Leatherby and family and many other Catholics to the Holy Land in 2008. (Fr. Art Wehr,SJ, and Fr. Mark Richards were also on the pilgrimage.) The evening we arrived, Fr. Leatherby celebrated Mass in Bethlehem on my 70th birthday. I was really moved by Fr. Leatherby's holiness. May God continue to bless Fr. Leatherby and the Leatherby families. (Paul Hinkle) |

| 470 | Dionne Collins | We are praying that Father Leatherby is returned to Presentation. |
| 471 | Steven Collins | |
| 472 | Natasha Field | |
| 473 | Kenneth Austin | There has been a rush to judgement in this case, as evidenced by the actions of the diocese, most especially, the absence of timely findings of fact. |

| 483 | Michele DeCristoforo | Please reinstate Father Leatherby now! More than ever, the flock needs shepherding. God knows the truth. It is heartbreaking that the priests who stay true to the Catholic faith are accused unjustly by the powers that be, while those who engage in homosexual and/or predatory behavior not only remain undisciplined but also protected within the diocese. Please do the right thing Bishop Soto“reinstare Father Leatherby. We are heartbroken that our faithful priest has been taken from us. |

| 486 | Peter and JoAnn | |
| 487 | Olivia | |
| 488 | Josh Deaser | |
| 489 | Rachael Russell Garza | Please reinstate Father Jeremy Leatherby. What has been done to him, to his family, & even more importantly, to the Church is appalling. This has dragged on for far too long and Father Jeremy is needed where God has called him. |
| 490 | Ruth almeter | |
| 491 | Steven L Coulter | Bishop Soto, I also support Father Leatherby's return to ministry. I love the Catholic Church, and brought my family (of 9 at the time, now 10) into the Church 9 years ago. Father Leatherby has been a blessing and encouragement to my family - his joy, reverence for the Mass, meaningful homilies faithful to Church teaching, and a desire to minister to and lead souls to our Lord. We all miss Father and wish his speedy return to active ministry. Steven Coulter |

| 493 | Theresa Ellis | Fr. Jeremy Leatherby is a good and faithful priest. |
| 494 | Nadine Della Bitta | Father Mark Richard, Vicar General: With such a shortage of Priests it seems the Diocese would want to resolve the "allegations" against Father Leatherby. The absence of Father Leatherby as a "priest", I believe, has had an negative affect in our Diocese. Father Leatherby has shown through his reverence as he prays the Mass, his counseling on faith matters, and his daily life of prayer (even through this tragic event in his life) that he is a devoted priest and this is the life God has chosen him to live. Allow him to return to his service to our Lord and the community. It is necessary to put this entire issue to rest to allow the healing process to begin. We need and have a right to a decision on the matter of Father Leatherby's return to his vocation as a fully functioning priest. If the Diocese would prefer he not return to this Diocese then release him so that he may serve the Lord elsewhere with dignity and the respect that he so deserves. It is time to stop punishing the people of this Diocese, whom he has been a holy spiritual leader, and to allow him to continue with his life - regardless of the decision - he and the people of this Diocese have a right for this to be put to rest. Return Father Leatherby to his full ministry as a priest of this diocese or allow him to move forward where he will be appreciated as a priest and spiritual adviser. |

| 500 | Karla Jimenez | It speaks volumes of the diocese when they treat a priest, such as Fr. Leatherby, whose fruits speak for themselves, so unjustly. Yet the many, many priests in the diocese who teach and promote heresies are not even touched. He has throughout his years of ministry brought thousands to a closer relationship to Jesus and Mary. How are we, the laity, to trust such a Diocese to investigate justly and with sincerity? It took 2 1/2 years to figure all this out? Really? And now with the push this letter gets sent out? Your flock, Bishop Soto, asks for answers. Your flock asks for transparency. Your flock asks for their Holy Priest back. |

I remember when father Jeremy came the our church, and I was very moved how Father Leatherby performed the transformation of the bread and the wine so that the Church asks the Father to his Holy Spirit on the bread and wine may become the body and wine of Jesus Christ and so that those who take part in the Eucharist may be one and one spirit. Father Jeremy made this conversion of the bread and wine into Christ's body and the blood that Christ becomes present in this sacrament. He made me feel the presence of the Lord. | 640 | Dan Osanna | Father Mark: Father Jeremy Leatherby is the only priest who has ever stood on the altar and told me it is his responsibility to get his parishioners to heaven. His leadership as the shepherd of Presentation is the reason I went from a lukewarm cradle Catholic to the daily communicant I am today because he introduced me to the love of our holy mother, Mary. He is also the reason that I am still faithful today because of the example of faithful obedience he is setting in this unfair persecution and also in light of the current scandals that are hitting our church. He is the one that taught me to put God first and not the priest. Let us contrast his actions with yours and the diocese. You came to our parish, lied to us when you told us Father Leatherby was ill, employees of the diocese have openly stated that Father is guilty without due process and in direct violation of Can. 1717 Â§2 . We watched a whole year of mercy as declared by Pope Francis go by without any mercy shown in this case. May God's mercy and justice reign down on all of you. In Jesus through Mary. |

It is my understanding that the adult woman recanted her allegations long ago-why then does Fr L continue to be persecuted? There was zero evidence to substantiate the claim from the beginning, and now even the woman herself admits it was a lie. The Leatherby family is well known, as is their wealth. The woman had motive to lie; she was looking for a pay out. Now that she has recanted, there is no reason not to reinstate. |

|-----|--------------------|---|
| 648 | Kathleen Nye | Fr. Leatherby was our pastor. He was removed weeks before my now-husband entered the Church at Easter vigil and just a few months before we were married. It may seem trivial, but we were robbed of our pastor who should have been allowed to be involved in administering these sacraments. Fr. Leatherby was nothing but respectful and transparent with me as a woman. During marriage prep, he left the door wide open during our one-on-one session, out of respect for us both. I have always tried to respect the privacy of this situation, initially trusting that the radio silence was for a just reason. We moved away from the area, but I would always ask my friends if there was any official news-- not gossip, not speculation--any official news. It's taken years to have any sort of official update on this. And it seems the updates now are only being shared because of the exposure and pleas that have been made by Sacramento Catholic laity. At this time when we as a church are so bloodied, hurt, and betrayed by some of our priests and bishops-- by both their actions and their silence-- it seems that now more than ever, it is time to shine the light on this situation. Further, the allegation that Fr. Leatherby has been removed as an attempt to silence those who who have witnessed and sought to expose wrong-doing by priests in our diocese ought to be fully investigated and explained. I hope, but doubt, that those allegations are taken just as seriously as the allegations against Fr. Leatherby. |

| 673 | Debbie Prior | |
| 674 | Robert Morrison | We miss Fr Leatherby. Please restore him to ministry! God be praised! |
| 675 | Ryan George Seeley | As a father of five, I expect my children to generally trust my judgment on family matters without question. Similarly, I'd expect roughly the same from Church faithful regarding episcopal authority over Clerics. But there are exceptions to both, which is why I sign this petition. If I were to punish one of my children without adequate explanation, or under false pretenses " I would hope that their siblings would petition me until I changed my mind. If my actions, purportedly in defense of my family, were disproportionate from what they expected, and in fact caused more damage and scandal than good, I hope my children would have the courage to persist, and I the wisdom to listen. Thus, respectfully, we petition you Bishop Soto through your agent Father Mark, to return Father Leatherby to active ministry, because: 1. Our pastor has been indefinitely removed from us, without adequate explanation. And although a "credible allegation" may justify an short-term suspension pending an investigation, it is incredible to suggest that a mere allegation, no matter how credible, can justify an over two-and-a-half-year suspension. Continued reliance on this one "credible allegation" as the basis for a multi-year suspension, does itself impair your respective credibility with the lay faithful. 2. The initial mis-representation, in writing, made on behalf of the diocese, that Father was absent due to illness, continues to cause the faithful to question diocesan credibility in this matter. As a father, the proper thing to do now (as I do when I make similar mistakes of haste with my children) is to own up to the false statement, and ask for forgiveness. 3. The diocese's response has been disproportionate, even assuming the allegation were later shown to be true. No criminal or civil proceedings were instituted nor referred to civil authorities. This is hopeful, because if this were not true, then it would mean that diocese would be derelict in its duties to protect the innocent, as well as a victim. But, this leaves only the conclusion then, that the diocese has suspended for over two years, a priest who has been "credibly alleged" to have engaged in a consensual but non-licit relationship/encounter with another consenting adult. Are we really meant to believe that this de-facto multi-year sentence is a just and proportional response where there is no alleged civil or criminal behavior ? 4. Father's unexplained suspension is not helping your lay faithful or clerics " it is causing un-necessary scandal and causing many long-time faithful to harden their hearts to your episcopate- though thankfully not to the Church as a whole. As a father myself, although I have a right and duty to mete out correction and protect my family as I see best, when I do so capriciously, without explanation, I hurt my children more than helping them. That is what you are doing to us your flock here. In closing, and in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I pray, either substantiate your decision to your flock immediately with credible evidence, not mere credible allegations, or else immediately return Father to active ministry. |

Nobody that I have encountered has any trust in the "powers" that are delaying this process, presumed to be the bishop. All believe that this is the unjust punishment of a faithful priest at the hands of a corrupted, liberal diocese... Healing and forgiveness are needed. Please, Bishop, to regain credibility you need to release Fr. Leatherby from his prison, come clean about the protected homosexual priests caught at St. Philomene's, expel them and the other misguided wolves lurking among your flock. There is no more "grey area" in which to hide, trying to please everyone. If you, Bishop Soto, do not stand up to protect us from this diabolical threat then you are assisting the evil attacks on Mother Church. We are all watching and we are all praying for you. Additionally all companies cultures mirrors that of its leaders. In my company our customers are the life blood of our financial viability and everyone knows it! So we treat our customers as such. The Faithful of the sacramento diocese are the bishop's customers yet we have not been treated as like we are valuable patrons. Instead he has covered up abuse and allowed his priest to abuse the faithful! We cannot sit quiet any-longer the sleeping giant has awaken. This clergy is not the church! We the faithful are the church and must hold them accountable for their actions. The truth will come out. | 731 | George Delgado MD | Please be accountable and transparent with regards to the Fr. Leatherby case, Deacon Leatherby's status and the handling of the homosexual abuse and cover-up scandal in the Church. |
| 732 | Frank Davey | Bring this wary shepard back to his flock. |
| 733 | Rick Taylor | We need Fr. Leatherby in our diocese. |
| 734 | Leon Lambert | My strong suggestion is that Fr. Leatherby file civil suit against Soto, Berg, Richards and the Diocese of Sacramento. |
| 735 | Steven obrien | |
| 736 | Lore Zawkiewicz | |
| 737 | Christi Heintz | My family has known Fr. Leatherby since he was a young boy. He grew into a fine, moral man and a very holy priest. I can attest to his outstanding character. We visited him in seminary in Rome and traveled with him as our spiritual guide to Medjugorje, Rome and Israel. With his influence, I have seen people find their faith and men become priests. Restore his ministry, he is a truly holy, blessed and gifted individual and priest. |
| 738 | Eva Jauregui | Father Leatherby is a good and holy priest and I personally witnessed his sincerity and true faith as he celebrated the Mass. His faithfulness was apparent to all. I do not know the reason but I believe the diocese has left Father in limbo these past 2.5 years as a means of pressuring him to give up his priesthood where they lacked sufficient evidence to do more. As has been said, the diocese started this with a lie so the credibility of Bishop Soto is diminished from the start. I therefore fear Father will not be provided a fair process. The only remedy is transparency and so I pray that the diocese will recognize past errors and strive sincerely to find truth and grant mercy to all involved. I pray now that the Bishop allow Father to return to his ministry in Sacramento or release him to join another Order or another diocese. |
| 739 | Eliana Plimpton | Praying for justice |
| 740 | June kertes | Please return Fr. Leatherby to active ministry. I have been praying for him 2 1/2 years. |
| 741 | Kim Collins | |
| 742 | Todd Schroeder | |
| 743 | Susie McEveety | Our family is blessed to call Fr Jeremy a very close friend. His priesthood is who he is. Your diocese is blessed to have him and I pray if you don't know his value that he will move to the Los Angeles diocese where I'm sure Archbishop Gomez would immediately recognize Fr Leatherby's holiness and love for the church. |

| 749 | SarahCam126 | Almost 40 years ago an abusive Bishop with same sex lifestyle railroaded and laicized a very holy priest in the Santa Rosa diocese and ruined his life and many souls were affected by his selfishness. That same diocese went broke settling and paying out claims of sexual abuse. This situation smells the same Bishop Soto. Let this priest resume what God has consecrated him to do. You must repent and resign. |
| 750 | Mary Ann Collins | He is a holy man. God be with him. |
| 751 | Diane Anderson | |
| 752 | Gary Lang | Please re-instate Fr Leatherby. Why would you deprive the Catholic. Faithful of such a holy priest? Thank you |
| 753 | Mark Zawkiewicz | I pray that you will stop lying to us and finally tell your flock what is really going on in this matter. We are the church and have equal dignity in the eyes of God. You have no more authority over us in this matter, especially when you stray from the teachings of the one True Holy Catholic Apostolic Church founded by Jesus. Please follow his teachings!!!! |

| 789 | Sue Arend | Fr. Leatherby needs to be reinstated so he can minister to his parish. This has gone on long enough. This would never be allowed to happen in the secular world and should not be happening now! What ever happened to innocent until proven guilty. The diocese has offered no proof of guilt. I will not donate one cent to this diocese and haven't since we moved here 2 years ago! |
| 790 | Jeanne Lupien | Bishop Soto- Why are you persecuting this holy priest and protecting other priests who are bringing true scandal to our diocese? We will not donate to your PR campaign. Reinstatate Father Leatherby. |

| 806 | Priscilla Gray | Bishop Soto, I advise you to respect this holy priest. You spent years in a den of homosexual activity -- the Diocese of Orange where I resided for 12 years. The fact that you got along there so well -- and now this priest and his father are persecuted-- not looking good. |

| 819 | Amanda Peter | What an abuse of power. Sodomite priests are protected and shown "mercy" - a good priest is accused of normal healthy heterosexuality but is not given a hearing- 2.5 years on. He is being suffocated and strangled. What terrible abuse of power!!! The laity can withhold the money!!!! We have power in that to fight back. |
| 820 | Stacey Phillips | The Diocese drafted a letter to the parishioners saying that Fr. Leatherby was on absence due to "illness." It is my understanding that this was a lie to the people. If it is, this is not okay nor is this a small thing. This is where the focus of communication to the Diocese should be because this is like the loose thread on an unravelling sweater. Certainly Grandma Leatherby :) and other family members can verify if Fr. Leatherby was indeed healthy and if the letter which the Diocese issued was a lie. Fr. Leatherby supporters should focus on that one issue to start weeding out the lies. Shine light on the Truth. That lie does not involve any personal details of Fr. Leatherby's accusation. The family can repeat the message, "My (grandson) (son) (brother) (nephew) (cousin), Fr. Leatherby, was not ill and the Diocese made a false report lying to all these people that he was." Truth is truth. Keep repeating it along with the prayers. When Shepherds lie to their flock, trust is broken...and that is ultimately bad for everyone. This should not be glossed over in the emotional picture of what's happening to Fr. Jeremy. The Diocese should confirm it was true that he was ill or repent of the cover-up lie. That would be good for the Church. Many prayers and blessings be with faithful Fr. Leatherby. Grant him a speedy hearing, please. And may Truth prevail there! |

| 851 | B. L. Anonymous | Let him have his day in court. God's people won't stand for this vindictive response on holy priests who are accused of what other priest are actually doing and yet they are protected. God's law doesn't change. | 940 | Rigo Felix | It appears that an injustice has been perpetrated on my favorite priest. What ever happened to procedural due process?Are church officials covering up other things? It's time to come clean. How many black-eyes will the church endure before the wrongs are corrected. This falls directly on the Bishop and I'm no longer contributing to this diocese. Very dissapointed in how this is being handled. |

You protect and defend liars, rapists of children, men and women, murderers, pederast, pedophiles, practicing homosexuals who are in charge of parish families, destroy solid Catholic schools, parishes, and murders of innocent souls, seminarians and the unborn. Pray with Fr. Leatherby and humble yourself before God. Repent, resign and spend your life as a layman with the poorest of poor for reparation and prayer. No authority, no car, no shelter, no possessions, but a rosary and the clothes on your back. Life is short, hell is forever. |
